LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. E. Barton and family, of Iowa, who have recently been making an extensive Pacific Coast tour, are now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stevens.

Judge Ferguson left with a party of friends for his home in the Mojave yesterday. He is said to own several very good prospects in that direction.

The chairman of the committee of arrangements for the Gov. Torres reception, desires the committee to meet at the Commercial Club to-morrow at 10 a. m.

The Supreme Court met to-day and adjourned till to-morrow. It will convene on Monday and adjourn day by day till the 12th when all the judges will be present and the adjourned session begins.

Mr. W. C. Collier, of Phoenix, is extensively engaged in the tree business. Parties in need of fruit, shade, or ornamental trees will find it to their advantage to address him before purchasing elsewhere.

James Anderson, Jr., formerly of this city, but now of Los Angeles is in Tucson and is being well received by his friends, many of whom have not seen him for the past several years.

For the past two days the wind has been blowing where it itself, and as a result of such a wind laying and blowing looking for a situation, it generally accompanied it, to the discomfort of pedestrians.

Southern Arizona and Sonora offer many advantages to capital than any other section in the world. Cheap oranges, cheap orange lands and rich mines and the best climate under the sun are a few things that will build the country up.—Beverly.

There will be several hundred more acres of land under cultivation this year in the Santa Cruz valley, near Tucson, than ever before. Several new water supplies are being developed and there will be enough for all.

The Baby Elephant racket run by an enterprising individual struck the town like a cyclone yesterday, but the harvest was light, as the thousands of the same were so apparent. The guarantee of a ten cent prize on a two-bit ante failed to materialize the coin.

Freight from San Francisco has never been as long in transit as at present. Considerable freight shipped on the G. & N. has not arrived yet. The trouble seems to be a lack of motive power and an enormous increase of business.

There will be no trouble about the growing of the cotton tree on the street of the city if they only be properly cared for. A gentleman residing on Stone Avenue cut and planted twenty rose in 1887, of which eighteen took root and grew.

There is said to be quite a demand for Tucson real estate at the present time. The intending purchasers do not propose to raise the price but are willing to buy at a reasonable figure. But the market is so overabundant for sale, the holders preferring to quietly wait a raise in the market.

Services at the M. E. Church, Cor. Stone Ave. and Washington St., Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. Excellent music both instrumental and vocal, under the able leadership of Mr. A. Oman. Free seats and a cordial welcome to all. Sunday School at 2 p. m.

A. H. GUNSTERT, Pastor.

Dr. George Martin has purchased a tract of land comprising 80 acres, on the hillside, upon which he proposes to build a comfortable residence and move his family thereon. As soon as water is turned into either the Davidson or Westmoreland, a number of families will locate thereabouts.

John Dobbs is suffering a great deal with his hands, which were long ago cut through and through by Apache arrows, and men desiring a photograph of the government it is this same John Dobbs, and all Arizonians should join in a petition for the same. Delegates would undoubtedly prefer it with more than his accustomed vim and vigor.—Corrier.

J. M. Quiggle will soon begin work on the Atlas Company's well and the work will be vigorously prosecuted until the abundance of water has been secured. According to contract Mr. Quiggle will receive five dollars per foot for the first five hundred feet and six dollars per foot for the remainder. This well will solve the water problem in that portion of the country.

Mr. B. Sampson, brother of Pima County's popular recorder, with wife and family, will shortly arrive in Arizona for permanent residence. Mr. Sampson was led to this step by the reading of a Salt River Valley circular. He is a man of means and will be a valuable addition to the community wherein he elects to reside.

The water in the pond near the Paul Miller was turned into the San Hughes ditch yesterday and the place was found to be teeming with fish, most of which were carp of many sizes. The fish taken were released and the pond was left in its natural state. It is hoped that the pond will be a very fair stock fish.

The Messrs. Allison have planted 30 acres in potatoes by way of an experiment, and in case of their success will plant an immense acreage next year. The potatoes will be grown under irrigation, but as they will be grown in bottom land, they will be watered by the natural overflow of the Colorado River.

"My Geraldine" was presented at the Academy last night. This popular play has been largely received by Mr. Duncanson, Harrison, the manager of the company. The new version contains all that was good in the original drama, and is a masterpiece of dramatic art. It was given a very effective presentation and was witnessed by a large and well-pleased audience.—Chicago Mail, Aug. 29, 1887.

The ball to be given, by and for the benefit of the S. H. Library Band, in the Masonic Hall to-morrow night, promises to be an event of much importance, as extensive preparations for it are being made. An elegant supper will be provided and the music will be of the Band's own rendition and will be exceptionally fine. In addition to the amount of money afforded the cause for which the ball is to be given is a worthy one, and a big turn out is expected.

The leap year masquerade at Masonic Hall last evening, for the benefit of the relief fund, was a complete success. The management certainly deserve a great deal of credit, for everything was perfectly arranged, and the best of the evening was a complete success. The refreshments were of all just what the ball needed is not yet known, but it is hoped they realized a nice sum.

The general idea that the Indian dances are not so much as the observations of Dr. Corbush among the Apaches. He says that "they do not dance physical pain any better, if as well as the white. Great and continuous pain renders them stupid, and often delirious, and the stolidity with which Indians in general are credited is not maintained by the small amount of opium operations, the one of tooth extraction, almost always eliciting a groan as a rule."

As well as the most effective method of dispelling Headaches, Colds, and Fevers, or lessening the system, is by taking a few doses of the Pleasant Fruit Syrup of Figs. For sale by F. Fleischmann & Co., Druggists.

A large and very enthusiastic audience welcomed "My Geraldine" at the Academy last evening. This romantic play, one of the best ever written by Bartley Campbell, has been reconstructed and improved by Mr. Duncanson, Harrison, and Manager Harrison, and is a most creditable success.—Chicago Mail, Aug. 29, 1887.

Estimating the wild old Apache thief, has located near Fort Apache, and is said to have gone into farming on a most extensive scale. Since he skipped from his old haunts on the San Pedro river, he has been living in safety, and his flock and herds graze in safety. The old villain and his band have probably gone for good.

Capt. Mason and Lieut. Murray were sent out after the renegade Indians have been ordered to return to their post at Lowell. The Apache was evidently manufactured out of whole cloth, as they failed to find an Indian or even any trace of one where they were reported to have been seen. The originator of Apache songs is to be scolded.

The S. P. Library band gives a grand ball this evening at Masonic Hall. The reception at the Commercial Club has been a success, and the band is to be congratulated on the success of the evening.

Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24th, 1888.

The anti-Cleveland movement in the democratic party is no longer to be conducted secretly. Nearly two-thirds of the National Democratic Committee which met here this week to select the time and place for holding the nominating convention, are opposed to Cleveland. This fact was clearly brought out by the vote on the proposition, made by Representative Scott, of Pennsylvania, to hold the convention in advance of the democratic party. Nearly two-thirds of the National Democratic Committee which met here this week to select the time and place for holding the nominating convention, are opposed to Cleveland. This fact was clearly brought out by the vote on the proposition, made by Representative Scott, of Pennsylvania, to hold the convention in advance of the democratic party.

The next day the Cleveland men, reinforced by telegrams from Dan LeComble, succeeded in getting a resolution adopted, and June 5th as the day for holding the convention. The Cleveland men wanted it held in June, while the anti-Cleveland men wanted it held in September. The Cleveland men wanted it held in June, while the anti-Cleveland men wanted it held in September. After a short showing the direction of the breeze was the selection of St. Louis as the place for the convention. The Cleveland men wanted it held in June, while the anti-Cleveland men wanted it held in September.

It will be surprising if the republican senators will vote to ratify the Cleveland fisheries treaty, which Cleveland has just secured. The Los Angeles Times truly says: "Arizona has almost as great a variety of scenery and climate as California. It includes within its limits one of the largest pine forests in the United States, immense coal fields and high mountains, regions covered with oak, juniper and other trees, where during the summer season, sportsmen can shoot wild turkeys, deer and other game. It is a most comfortable and pleasant place to live in. ## Copper and Lead Market.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

COPPER.—Trading throughout the week has been satisfactory, and although quotations are slightly easier, a very healthy tone has been observable, and it is known that some large quantities in speculators' hands, which have been banking on the market for some time, have now been cleared out, and passed into the hands of dealers and consumers. With little prospects that they can do any better during the next few months by waiting and low stocks, speculators have been tempted to purchase more freely at the slightly lower prices recently established. As to the general prospects of the market, there is still a great amount of uncertainty as to whether the Calumet & Hecla Company have actually entered into an agreement with the French syndicate or not. As far as can be ascertained from the company's agent here the rumor is denied, but on the other hand, the parties interested in the syndicate are endeavoring to reiterate it. Of course, should the statement be actually confirmed, the significance of such a fact will be fully appreciated by everybody interested in the copper market, but even should this prove to be the case, we think the wise course is to adopt a cautious policy, and not to speculate on the market until the situation is cleared up.

The next day the Cleveland men, reinforced by telegrams from Dan LeComble, succeeded in getting a resolution adopted, and June 5th as the day for holding the convention. The Cleveland men wanted it held in June, while the anti-Cleveland men wanted it held in September. The Cleveland men wanted it held in June, while the anti-Cleveland men wanted it held in September.
